

Tel: 089 30 76 69 60 office@strasser-strasser.de

Jochen Haase Sports Scientist / Mathematician / Alpine Guide

Training

2005 - 2007

Training as a systemic coach and consultant (IFW Munich)

2001 - 2004

Additional training in Communications Psychology (Prof. Schulz v. Thun, Hamburg)

1992 - 1998

Study of Mathematics and Sports Science with state examinations (Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich and University of Technology Munich)

1992 - 1996

Training as a nationally certified alpine guide (University of Technology Munich)

Areas of expertise

- Training of employees in the fields of team communication, cooperation and leadership
- Systemic coaching of teams und executives in firms and organisations
- Performance workshops with the purpose of strategic optimisation and reorganisation
- Team workshops in different stages of collaboration (team building, team development)
- Outdoor training and events in mountains, high rope courses or nearby seminar hotels:
- Design and conduct of issue-specific and structure-similar team tasks
- Switch of action, contemplation and transfer

Experience

Since 2006

Cooperation partner of Strasser & Strasser Business Consulting AG, section outdoor training

Since 2005

Speaker at ZAB

2005

Additional training in experiential education (Outward Bound)

Since 1996

Self-employed trainer and consultant with core competency in outdoor training

1995 - 2005

Administration of 10 expeditions in the Himalaya, the Andes and the Antarctica (2 eight-thousanders)